An Update From NAFGPD President Jeanine Nemitz

Friends,

I hope that your travels home from the Senior Corps Convening were pleasant and that you're busy getting your Grandparents back to school. For those of you with either RSVP or Senior Companions as well, may those assignments come off without a hitch!

Senior Corps Convening

The monthly call between the 3 Association Presidents and Senior Corps staff takes place on the last Monday of each month. I'll share some of what was announced this morning in this newsletter along with any other info that I think might be of interest to you.

I'll keep comments brief—I know it's a super busy time of year!

Regulation Changes: CNCS is just as anxious as we are for the regulation changes to take place. There were 125 separate comments that all must be responded to. The next step is to send them to the White House Office of Management & Budget for review and approval. THEN they go back to the Regulations people for final language tweaks. All of this is in process—but not ready for "Prime Time." Jill Sears assures us that it is getting closer. And who says that the government wheels of progress turn slowly?

2019 TRAINING EVENTS

The tentative plans for 2019 are to hold three separate training events for Senior Corps. Each will have a different focus issue.

Debbie Cox-Roush stated that her favorite review from the convening came from an NAFGPD Member who stated that "we are all very good at jumping through hoops, but this is made more difficult when the hoops keep moving!"

NAFGPD Board elections are coming up in September. Please consider serving on the Board. It's an exciting time to be involved!
